CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield's Official Response to Proposed ACA Changes

Proposed changes to the Affordable Care Act were released to the public on Tuesday, March 7, 2017. Members may be contacting you with questions about how recent statements made by the President, members of Congress or other officials may affect them.

Please note that until there are actual changes to provisions and implementation of the Affordable Care Act at both the federal and state level, there are no practical effects on CareFirst members or their coverage. We will continue to monitor developments on the federal level and share information as appropriate with our members, accounts and others.

Should you have any questions, please contact your broker sales representative.
