

For brokers and producers only

Date: April 18, 2019

Market: All (Excludes Medicare Supplement)

New Video Visit Services Launching Early May

In early May, CareFirst is launching additional services as part of our Video Visit offering through American Well. These services include behavioral health (therapy and psychiatry), diet and nutrition assistance and lactation support. Additional information, including marketing materials, will be provided in the first May newsletter. It will include an account email, updated FAQs, links to marketing collateral and timing for member campaigns.

For more information

If you have any questions, please contact your broker sales representative.