

For brokers and producers only

Date: July 25, 2019

Market: All

Implementation of My Account Security Feature Delayed

Earlier this spring, a voluntary, two-step verification security process was announced for My Account. A follow-up launch was planned for August 9, when the process would become mandatory. At this time, the mandatory rollout will be delayed until later this summer. Communications, including the new date, will release prior to the rescheduled launch.