Live Webinar to Help Employers Moderate Return to Work Risks

As part of our core resources developed to help employers plan for and support their employees' return to work, CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield (CareFirst) is offering a live webinar with experts from the Johns Hopkins Center for Health Security. We'd like to invite you to join your clients for:

- An overview of the pandemic to date, including a review of key terms (e.g. confirmed/probable case, cluster, community transmission, contact tracing, public health and social measures, isolation, quarantine etc.)
- Insights on decision making and risk management
- A review of the online Business Operational Toolkit
- Q&A session

Accounts and brokers can learn more about the speakers and register (via links below) for:

- September 23 from 10 a.m.— noon (recommended for 200+ employer groups), or
- September 29 from 2—4 p.m. (recommended for 25-199 employer groups).

As a reminder, all employer groups can take advantage of the core resources on our Return to Work page.
