

Join us for Exclusive Producer training

As an Innovation Health exclusive producer, you're required to send at least one agent from your firm to our producer training sessions. There is valuable Innovation Health content and yearly updates you will not want to miss. Failure to attend may result in a loss of future privileges.

One day of content will be catered to producers; the other to the dedicated account staff that represent your customers.

Be sure to RSVP for one of these sessions by end of day (8/28). Details below.
