

WE KNOW SELF-FUNDING. YOU KNOW YOUR COMPANY.

Together, we can build a solution that's right for you.

Self-funding is a smart strategy. Cigna is a pioneer in creating self-funding options for companies with fewer than 250 employees.¹ These are not big-company products repackaged, or quick-fix solutions hastily duct taped together. Our self-funding options are designed to meet the specific needs of companies like yours.

Our self-funding solutions give companies the opportunity to understand and manage health care expenses and save money when claims are lower.

More than 61% of new Cigna clients chose our self-funding solutions.²

More than 25 years of self-funding experience

Cigna has shared over $33 million in surplus credits.³

The average Graded Funding client has been with Cigna for more than eight years.²

Two innovative options

Level FundingSM and Graded FundingSM offer several innovative advantages over traditional health plans. As your needs change and grow, we make it easier for you to move between funding types.

Level Funding

Know what you owe with the financial predictability of a fixed monthly payment. If your claims are lower than predicted, you'll receive a credit that offsets future health plan costs. If claims run higher than expected, you'll owe no additional dollars. 80% of our Level Funding clients that have stayed with us for multiple years receive a credit at the end of the year.²

Graded Funding

Pay as you go for actual claims. If those claims are lower than expected, you'll enjoy immediate savings. If claims run higher than expected, you will have a preset maximum that protects you. More than 80% of our Graded Funding clients incurred less than their maximum limits.²

Not all self-funding is the same

Consider the following.

- › Does your self-funded plan administrator charge additional fees for basic wellness programs, case management, claims reports and run-out administration? Cigna offers solutions that include these services at no additional charge and optional services for more comprehensive health improvement programs and litigation services.
- › What is the history and knowledge level of the persons helping you design and manage your self-funded plan? Cigna has solutions that are supported by a client service team made up of individuals who have many years of experience in launching and managing successful self-funded health plans.
- › Will a separate stop-loss insurance carrier result in different contracts than the medical plan, causing delays in claim processing and even the potential for nonpayment? Cigna's medical plan and stop-loss policies are integrated – meaning no coverage gaps, no additional set-up fees and prompt client reimbursement.
- › Is the plan connected to a “leased” network of hospitals and health care professionals that provide below-market discounts and require separate claim submissions? Cigna directly manages and maintains our Open Access Plus network, enabling direct payment of claims and market competitive discounts.
- › Does stop-loss cover accumulative and individual claims? Cigna's stop-loss insurance protects you from an accumulation of high claims across your entire employee population, plus it provides protection for individual catastrophic claims.

Advantages of being a Cigna client
