Coming soon: An easier way to get marketing materials

July 8, 2021

We're days away from launching the site that will make selling Anthem even easier.

Anthem Broker Hub goes live Monday, July 12, 2021. It will replace Your Time Matters for Small Group sales, IndividualBrokers.com for Individual sales, and the Large Group marketing resource sites.

The new site will help you find marketing materials faster with:

- Keyword search
- Filtering by state, segment, and product type
- One-click downloading and sharing of marketing resources
- Quick Links to important selling resources in your state

Please contact your sales representative for more information.
